

1. To further the social well-being of people who have intellectual disabilities by ensuring that they have opportunities for optimal personal development and the necessary support to realize personal aspirations.
  2. To encourage respect of people with intellectual disabilities by educating and encouraging the community and furthering the development of the community's capacity to include, support and accommodate people who have intellectual disabilities.
  3. To facilitate the participating of people with intellectual disabilities of all ages in the life of the community and its economy by offering supports and services tailored to the unique needs, gifts and aspirations of each individual in receipt of such support.
  4. To unite the efforts of all self-advocates and their family members, friends and other persons interested in the welfare of people with intellectual disabilities in our community, and to co-operate with such organizations, agencies, government departments, and other groups whose purposes are consistent with these objectives.
  5. To support and further the training and education of those working with and on behalf of persons with intellectual disabilities.
- (d) To add the following special provisions:
1. Subject to applicable legislation, to solicit, receive, acquire and hold gifts, donations, legacies and devices, to collect fees, and to enter into contractual arrangements with government for the accomplishment of the foregoing Objects.
  2. To invest the moneys of the Corporation not immediately required for its Objects in any securities in which, under the Trustees Act, trustees may invest funds.
  3. To establish, maintain and operate facilities for the provision of support services to persons with intellectual disabilities, consistent with the Objects of the Corporation.